“LOVING YOURSELF AS SOUL

Dreams, Soul Travel, and prophecy gain their power through God’s love. It’s the love that God has for you as Soul. That’s why centuries ago Christ said to love your neighbor as yourself. That principle is based on divine love.

Some people have a habit of putting themselves down. They look in the mirror, and they see that somehow the mirror isn’t giving the same reflection it used to ten, fifteen, or twenty years ago. There seems to be more of a grainy surface to the mirror—it doesn’t look as good. So people are hard on themselves.

It’s simply because they’ve forgotten that we are not this body—this thing that looks more grainy in the mirror every year, every decade. We are Soul, and Soul wears the human body like a suit of clothes, a dress, or an overcoat. It was new once, then it gets comfortably worn. One day it gets old, then it’s time to get rid of it. So Soul does. Soul is the eternal part.

Inside the body is where you, Soul, are. Our bodies are very important. They’re like our buildings, our temples. We do the best we can to keep them in working order because we would do this out of love for ourselves—because of our love for God, because of God’s love for us.”
